

02 - VOCABULARY: ENVIROMENT

Trees and plants absorb carbon-dioxide and release oxygen into the air.

Coal-generated electricity will make your carbon footprint bigger.

Their contaminated milk powder made lots of babies really sick.

How much domestic waste does your family produce every day?

Plants, insects and birds in your garden are part of an ecosystem.

Cars emit harmful pollutants into the atmosphere.

Burning fossil fuels is a major cause of global warming.

The more greenhouse gases we produce, the worse climate change will get.

Can't we find a pesticide that's safe?

Fumes from factories pollute our air.

All the pollution around here comes from factories and mines.

A lot of things like paper and glass can be recycled.

You should reduce your household waste.

We're producing cheaper renewable energy these days.

We try to reuse things like plastic bags and bottles.

There are two kinds of plastic bottles: reusable bottles and single-service bottles.

After the mine released toxic waste into the river, all the fish died.

Smoke from factories often contains dangerous toxins.

We are using up the earth's natural resources faster than ever.

Don't waste toilet paper; use one or two sheets instead of three or four.

Zero-emission vehicles like electric cars are much cheaper now.

All our products are biodegradable.