

04 - VOCABULARY: FRIENDSHIP

It's easy to strike up a friendship with people you meet on holiday

I find it difficult to make friends.

Do you get on well with your classmates (also: get along)?

I can always rely on my sisters. I also depend on my older brother.

My brother's not very reliable (or dependable).

You have to trust your friends.

He was very loyal to my father. Jim was very disloyal, instead.

She's very sociable and gets on well with people.

A close friend is someone you know well and like very much.

Julie is not speaking to Linda. They fell out during the school trip. But they are best friends and soon they'll make up.

As years go by, school friends often drift apart.

I like my new roommate! We have a lot of same interests and get on like a house on fire.

I'm so glad my friend is so kind and sympathetic, it's good to always have a shoulder to cry on.