

06 - VOCABULARY: WEDDINGS

When two people are planning to get married, they can choose to have a religious ceremony or a civil ceremony.

On the wedding day, the groom is helped by a best man who brings the rings to the wedding ceremony.

The bride may have one or more bridesmaids.

During the ceremony bride and groom exchange vows

The Priest (or minister, or justice of the peace, or someone legally entitled) marry them and invites the guests to congratulate the newlyweds

Afterwards, there is a reception for the couple and the wedding guests.

It's traditional for the best man and the groom to make speeches.

Then everyone drinks a toast to the couple, and wishes them a long and happy marriage.

After the reception, they usually go on their honeymoon.

On the same day every year after that, the couple celebrate their wedding anniversary.

We wish them a long and happy marriage.
