

07 – VOCABULARY: DRINKING

Sometimes I drink an aperitif before starting a meal

After the two cocktails I feel tipsy

Can I just have a soft drink, a lemonade or orange juice?

Do you want your whisky with ice or do you want it neat?

Can I please have a whisky on the rocks?

Do you like spirits? I don't like rum, I prefer whisky or gin.

I'll have a glass of red wine. Can I also a shot of tequila with it?

Cheers! Here's to your health.

To sip means to take small drinks of something, often used with wine or cocktails

When ordering wine, you can ask for a glass of red, white, or rose.

Liquor is strong alcohol such as vodka, gin, or tequila.

Draft beer is pulled from the tap, as opposed to coming from a bottle or a can.

I can't get drunk. The day after I always have a hangover.

Jim drinks like a fish.

Many of his friends go on a drinking binge at the weekend.

One in seven people is addicted to alcohol or drugs.

What are the penalties for drink driving in your country?