

EXERCISE 11 SOLUTIONS

Please fill the gaps using these words and phrases:

“constructive criticism, overall, compelling, that's a relief, areas for improvement, nitpicky, to ramble , take that on board, minor tweaks, invaluable.”

1. Thanks for the feedback. I'll take that on board for next time.
2. Your project is strong, but there are a few areas for improvement before it's ready to present.
3. The teacher gave me constructive criticism that helped me improve my writing without discouraging me.
4. The website is almost finished; it just needs a few minor tweaks.
5. Overall, the presentation went smoothly, even though there were a few small mistakes.
6. The documentary was so compelling that I couldn't stop watching.
7. Her advice was invaluable and helped me avoid several mistakes.
8. Try not to ramble during your speech; keep your points clear and focused.
9. The test results came back normal — wow, that's a relief.
10. I don't want to sound nitpicky, but there are two spelling errors in the paragraph.