

EXERCISE 14 SOLUTIONS

Please fill the gaps using these words and phrases:

“got to, collapsed, pretend, made up, ended up, looked like, though, felt like, childhood, magical.”

1. He learned to pretend indifference, masking his disappointment with practiced ease.
2. After years of research, she finally got to present her findings at an international conference.
3. What began as a temporary job ended up reshaping his entire career path.
4. It felt like time stopped when I heard the news
5. My childhood was full of summer adventures and long days outside.
6. From a distance, the abandoned house looked like a relic frozen in time.
7. The negotiations collapsed when neither side was willing to compromise.
8. There was something magical about the way the city lights reflected on the river at dusk.
9. The author made up an entire mythology to give depth to the novel's universe.
10. She accepted the position, though she remained uncertain about its long-term consequences.