

EXERCISE 3 SOLUTIONS

Please fill the gaps using these phrases:

“in the market for, break the bank, have a look at, out there, check out, tons of, guide me through, fair point, use some expert advice, hit the road.”

1. You should check out that new restaurant downtown; I've heard they serve excellent food.
2. Could you guide me through the process of setting up the new software? I'm not sure where to start.
3. Fair point. I hadn't considered the problem from that perspective.
4. I'm thinking of investing some money, but I could use some expert advice before making a final decision.
5. We've got a long drive ahead of us, so we'd better hit the road early tomorrow morning.
6. There are tons of useful videos online that can help you improve your English pronunciation.
7. We don't need to stay in an expensive hotel; I'd rather find somewhere comfortable that won't break the bank.
8. There are plenty of interesting job opportunities out there if you're willing to look beyond your local area.
9. I'm in the market for a new laptop, but I don't want to spend more than €1,000.
10. Before you make a decision, why don't you have a look at the different options available.
