

EXERCISE 5

Please fill the gaps using these phrases:

“Pretty well, butterflies in my stomach, warmed up, throw at you, catch you off guard, handle them, get back to me, whatever the outcome, give it your best shot, waiting game.”

1. You may not feel completely prepared, but _____ and see what happens.
2. The question _____, because I hadn't expected them to ask about my previous experience.
3. After a few minutes of small talk, everyone had _____ and the conversation became much more relaxed.
4. I know him _____ so I wasn't surprised when he decided to turn down the offer.
5. We've submitted the application, so now we're playing the _____ until we hear whether we've been accepted.
6. The job can be quite demanding, but she's experienced enough to _____ calmly and professionally.
7. _____, I'm glad I decided to give it a try rather than wondering what might have happened.
8. I'll send you the information this afternoon, and you can _____ if you have any questions.
9. Don't worry if the interviewer _____ a few difficult questions _____; just take your time and think before answering.
10. I had _____ before going on stage, but I soon relaxed once I started speaking.