EXERCISE 6
SOLUTIONS

Please fill the gaps using these phrases:

"Head over to, massive step, lifelong dream, secure a job, landed a role, thrilled, uprooting your life, start fresh, no easy feat, throw a farewell party."

1. I was absolutely thrilled when I found out that I'd been accepted for the programme.
2. Uprooting your life and moving to another country can be exciting, but it also involves a lot of uncertainty.
3. After a difficult few years, she decided to move to another city and start fresh.
4. He took an intensive course to improve his qualifications and secure a job in the IT industry.
5. After work, I'm going to head over to my friend's house for dinner.
6. Learning to speak a language fluently as an adult is no easy feat, but it's definitely possible with consistent practice.
7. Moving abroad on your own is a massive step, especially if you've never lived away from your family before.
8. We're going to throw a farewell party for James before he moves to Canada next month.
9. Opening a small restaurant by the sea has always been a lifelong dream of hers.
10. After several auditions, she finally landed a role in a major theatre production.

Edizioni Be Free Project© – anno 2026 Riproduzione Vietata