

VOCABULARY AND FUNCTIONS UNDERSTANDING

EXERCISE

Match the Situation

Match each situation (A-J) with the most appropriate response (1-10).
(More than one answer might be possible, but choose the best one.)

Situations:

- A. You just realized your friend was joking.
- B. You didn't catch what your teacher said.
- C. You understand why your coworker was upset.
- D. You want to check if you understood the meeting time correctly.
- E. You are confused about which document to use.
- F. You finally understand the reason for a delay.
- G. You want someone to explain something again in a simpler way.
- H. You completely agree with someone's explanation.
- I. You don't understand the meaning of a word your boss used.
- J. You want to make sure your understanding is correct before taking action.

Responses:

- 1. I get it now!
- 2. I'm not sure I understand.
- 3. Now I understand.
- 4. I see what you mean.
- 5. Could you explain that again?
- 6. Sorry, what do you mean?
- 7. If I understand you correctly, the meeting is at 10 a.m.?
- 8. That makes sense.
- 9. I'm confused - which one do we use?
- 10. Got it!