

03 - VOCABULARY: A LIST OF PHRASES FOR SHOPPING

- During the sales I go bargain hunting with my friends!
- Jack and I generally do the shopping together on Saturday mornings.
- She's gone shopping - I've no idea when she'll be back!
- I need your opinion. Will you come with me to the fitting room?
- I'd love that jacket but I can't afford it!
- I'm very sorry. I'm afraid the colour you want is out of stock.
- Look at the price of that bag - it costs a fortune!
- The diamond engagement ring cost an arm and a leg!
- It's a steal!
- At that price it's a steal. You won't find one cheaper in any other shop.
- The quality is excellent so it's good value for money.
- Before I try it on I must find the price tag - just to be safe!
- If you keep the receipt you'll be able to exchange the article.
- You must produce the receipt if you want to get a refund.
- The kids need new winter coats but I'll wait until the sales to buy them.
- The Internet makes it easier to shop around before buying anything.
- The shop assistant was extremely patient with my mother
- If you go to London with Ashley, you'll shop till you drop

- Sophie's favourite pastime is shopping - she's a complete shopaholic!
- Liza is planning to go on a shopping spree as soon as she gets her bonus.
- A little shopping therapy can usually cheer up bored teenagers.
- We spent a lot of money on excursions during our trip.
- When he got a promotion Andy splashed out on a brand new car.
- The hair dryer didn't work properly so she took it back to the shop.
- That handbag goes beautifully with the dress, and it's a bargain!
- Their clothes are a bit pricey but they have a wonderful selection.
- 80% off! That's incredible - it's dirt cheap at that price.!
- 10 pounds for an orange juice? That's a rip-off!
- I haven't been paid yet, so I can only go window shopping